WinSport's ski and snowboard hill to remain closed on Thursday

CALGARY, Alta. – With the mercury still in the bone-chilling zone, WinSport announced today that it has extended the closure of the ski and snowboard hill at Canada Olympic Park until at least Thursday.

A decision on Friday's opening of the ski and snowboard hill will be made Wednesday morning. The tube park, however, will be closed Friday.

With changing weather conditions, guests are advised to visit winsport.ca for the latest updates.

About WinSport

WinSport inspires human potential through the spirit of sport. The Calgary Olympic Development Association, operating as WinSport, is a community-based, not-for-profit organization that owns and operates Canada Olympic Park and the Bill Warren Training Centre in Canmore. WinSport also administers legacy funds that support the Olympic Oval. WinSport's mission has three pillars: to help people discover the joy and health benefits of sport; to encourage talented athletes to develop their skills; and to enable Canada's high-performance athletes to excel on the world stage. Financial commitments from Canadian governments and business have allowed WinSport to expand its sport and community offering over time; significant investment will be required in the coming years to renew the legacy facilities that have welcomed the world to the Calgary region for more than a generation.
