WinSport Canada, in partnership with the Government of Alberta, announces unique initiative to support sport in Canada

Calgary, AB – The Canadian Winter Sport Institute is proud to launch a new initiative to help grow and support sport in Canada – the WinSport Canada Sponsorship Summit 2009. This one-of-a-kind conference will be hosted from September 23 through 25 at WinSport Canada’s Canada Olympic Park in Calgary, Alberta.

The WinSport Canada Sponsorship Summit, through the expertise of an international panel of speakers, will guide sport organizations and corporations through the complete 360 degree sponsorship process from brand building to negotiating to measuring return on investment. The purpose of the Summit is to provide Canadian sport event organizers, athletes and sport governing bodies with the information and tools to market themselves in a way that will help guarantee long-term funding to secure Canada’s future sport success. At the same time, it will show corporations how they can benefit through a sponsor relationship with sport properties.
